It's All About Jaguar Fashion

It's all about fashion. It's all about shopping. It's all about me. It's all about you. It's all about us. What's your favorite place to shop? I love to shop at Mervyn's. Open, open, open.

It's all about what's in and what's out. What's hot and what's not. Flames are like so hot. Everyone wears flames. You have to have flames. Flames are everywhere. Like a leopard is five minutes ago is like so five minutes ago. Saying five minutes ago is like so ten minutes ago. But you got to have shoes. Shoes and more not just any S h o e s , shoes. But s h o e s .

Vans are the number one shoe at Jepson. Everyone loves vans. Or Skechers or Nikes or Adidas or Converse. Your shoes totally have to match what you are wearing. You have to have more than one pair of shoes. Baggy pants are still in. Most people like Dickies. I think everyone has at least one pair of Dickies. Just go to the mall. If you want to know what is in style, if you want to know where to find fashion, hang out at the mall. It's where to find out what to wear. It's all about fashion. It's all about you. It's all about being with friends. Yeah, it's all about friends (& shopping).

enduring FREEDOM

Tuesday, September 11, 2001, will be remembered as a tragic day that changed the world. That morning, a plot, masterminded by terrorist Osama bin Laden and the al-Qaeda network, was put into action. Two hijacked commercial airliners were flown into New York City's World Trade Center Towers, ultimately causing their collapse. Immediately following the incident, another hijacked airliner crashed into one side of the Pentagon in Washington, D.C., and a fourth plane crashed in Pennsylvania. Thousands of lives were lost, citizens were terrified and the world was in shock.

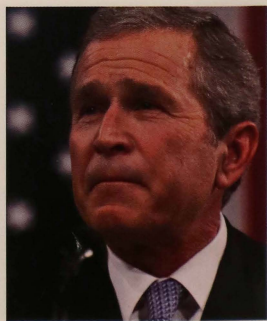

Following that mournful day the United States experienced anthrax scares, continued security threats and the reality of war. Despite the horror, fear and heartache, U.S. citizens united and their patriotic spirit soared. President Bush promised: "We will not tire, we will not falter, we will not fail." Through that statement and the remarkable sense of national pride exuded by U.S. citizens, it became evident that no threat, great or small, could deter the United States resolve for enduring freedom.
